U.S. Probation Officer Action:

Mr. Welsh has been on supervised release since September 30, 2011. Since that time he has lived with his wife and children in rural Marshall County, Tennessee. He has maintained steady employment with King Excavation as a truck driver. Mr. Welsh has been offered employment with Alley-Cassetty Company as a truck driver. This position would provide him with a higher wage and health benefits. However, it will at times require travel with overnight stays. Mr. Welsh would like to take this position.

As a special condition of his supervision, Mr. Welsh is on home confinement for 24 months. He is scheduled to expire from both home confinement and supervised release in approximately 5 months, on September 29, 2013. Mr. Welsh has done very well on supervision.

It is recommended that the Mr. Welsh's special condition for home confinement be removed to allow him to accept better employment with Alley-Cassetty. The U.S. Probation Officer has discussed this case with Assistant U.S. Attorney Brent Hannafan, who is agreeable with this recommendation.
